The Kern Kliff Quarry (< 200m<sup>2</sup>) and Havelock near Peterborough are eroded squares. Square said and spelled backwards is eraugs, similar in sound to eros. Quarry, scare and scury, backwards also sound similar to eros. The arctic and volcanic arc and archipelago use "arrows" syllables. The ridges are sound baffles.

Eros is short for Erosion
Before the ice ages the quarries had arrows, sound baffles for 1/2 full or more gravity carrier wave intake

The echo and narcissus legend(s) mention a "golden" room or pool, when they are most probably referencing a technical color of the bold rock. With the drop capital rule applied to gold, it becomes, old, bold, gold, mold, gold, gold. Cold and bold are stone boulder colors, blue, hence the saying, stone cold. White, blue, green, purple, black are listed as compound cold colors in Sir Wyke BAYLIS Reeves&Sons, books.google.ca/books?id=hi5kAAACAAJ 1855 - Light in art - 32 pages. Bold colors listed on Dulux Paint are teal, purple, orange gold, and red. Mood rings made from chromatic stone change to a different thermal color. Purple is a compound word. Purr and Pull can be extracted during pronunciation and found in nature at Spring cool (April Fool) Pull colors and Autumn equinox as Purr, or Rus, surging yellows and red. The difference between a mirror and a mirage is perhaps the AG elemental material that stops and plugs vacuums. I have to guess throwing colloidal silver of the tibetan variety on a naturally occurring black water mirror may stop and plug the vacuum interfering with thermals. Heal the environment! Seal the exosphere! Heal the sky!

Reduction of surface erosion caused by helium aip.scitation.org/doi/10.1063/1.88426
Heavens Gate mass suicide scare is over. The idea that helium can somehow heal the world with existing eroded structures is real! Helium has prevented quarries from eroding entirely. Its true function is much more powerful and worldwide. Havelock and Kern Kliff Quarry align to d'ark asteroid trajectory at the north pole when it was at Greenland's southern tip. Squares are Flush aligned due North East. Runs parallel to the Oundas Highway Five. The earth has grown and its poles wandered!

Solar photography shows a "comet" orbiting the sun. Somehow they float across the atmosphere!!! A full 180 degrees. Could this be dark matter? Is it better to call it a d'ark matter asteroid? This similar phenomenon is shown to happen to earth. I saw the easter asteroid in 1992/93. email: lipartiti@mail.com

The earth's "perihelion" is undocumented as an atmospheric layer. The d'ark asteroid may ride the troposphere under the o-zone layer perimeter.
